

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

N first announcing the design of a Bibliographical Cyclopædia, the compiler was under the impression that one volume would comprehend both an alphabet of Authors, with an account of their works, and a systematic arrangement of Subjects, with references to the best authors who have written on them. As the alphabet of Authors proceeded, it became obvious that an entire volume would be requisite for the authors and their works alone. This has been accomplished in the volume published in 1854; not without the necessity, even in that enlarged form, of leaving out much that might advantageously have been added, and which might reasonably have been expected, but for the necessity of limiting the work to certain bounds. In commencing the publication of the Subjects, the extent to which the work ought to be carried in order to its design being satisfactorily carried out, became still more apparent, and therefore the compiler determined to bring it out in divisions, each division forming a volume complete in itself, so that the purchaser might have a complete book, without being under the necessity to take more than one, if inconvenient.

The result of that determination is the present publication, which consequently has been carried through the press with less fear of its exceeding the prescribed bounds. It is therefore hoped that no considerable omissions will be found in the treatment of the important subjects which it embraces.

The great aim in this volume is to point out the authors who have written in illustration of any or all of the books, chapters, and verses of THE HOLY SCRIPTURES. It is limited to no sect; the contributions of all denominations will be found here referred to. It is limited to no nation; English, French, Italian, German, and other nations are, in a greater or less degree, here represented; nor is it limited to any time, authors from the earliest to the latest period are here ranged under each head in chronological order.

As it is contemplated that books in the whole range of human knowledge may be ultimately embraced in the work now commenced, the volume is initiated by a short account of the Bibliography, Dictionaries and Encyclopædias of Universal Knowledge, enumerating them to a very limited extent, and introducing them chiefly to show that in exact bibliography they cannot be placed under any subordinate head, inasmuch as they comprehend all. In compliance, however, with general custom, an article will be appropriated to these heads should the work be so fortunate as to proceed so far, where the subjects will be treated more at length. Introductory works on Theology then follow, on its bibliography and study, the Encyclopædias, Dictionaries, and Systems. The chief part of the volume is then devoted to the Holy Scriptures, introductions to the study of the Sacred Volume, directions for reading it, its authenticity, authority, truth, inspiration, excellency, style, interpretation, an account of the original texts, the various languages into which it has been translated, the commentaries and other works which have been written on the whole Bible, and on the various books, chapters, and verses in the order of Scripture; the work concludes with Scripture Prophecy, types and figures, promises, biblical antiquities, sacred geography, natural history, chronology, history, biography, &c.

On the verses of Scripture the chief references are to sermons; these, although sometimes treating a verse only as a motto, yet in general the writers on a particular text are more satisfactory than the writers of commentaries, as they necessarily give more attention to its various aspects, and, by enlarging upon it, develop more fully its meaning. If Lord Bacon could say in his time that "if the choice and best observations which have been made dispersedly in our English sermons had been set down in a continuance, it would be the best work in divinity that hath been since the Apostles' time," how much more could he have said so now, after the labours of the great divines who have appeared in the two centuries and a half that have intervened since that time? The late Rev. Edward Bickersteth, in his "Christian Student," says, "An Index of all the texts on which sermons have been published to the present time is wanted. Cooke's edition of Letsome's Preacher's Assistant is now scarce and dear, yet it was published fifty years since, did not contain many older sermons and treatises, and might now be advantageously enlarged by subsequent works." Mr. Bickersteth also says, "A work of reference to books on subjects in religion, such as is comprehended in the second part of Watt's Bibliotheca, and Wilkins' list in his Gift of Preaching, only more minute, referring not merely to books, but to the pages where the subjects are treated, would much facilitate studies on particular parts of Theology."

These desiderata and others it is the design of the present work to satisfy. The illustrations are referred to that have been given of the various verses of Scripture by the Fathers of the Church, the Middle-age writers, the Reformers, and the principal authors downwards to the present time, with the volume and page where they are to be found. The editions are generally those specified in the Cyclopædia Bibliographica, Authors. Thus a ready reference may be obtained to what has been brought to bear on any passage by the eloquent St. Basil, St. Chrysoſtom, Jeremy Taylor, Boſſuet, Bourdaloue, Maſſillon, and Saurin; the imaginative Thomas Adams, Fuller and Seed; the witty South; the ſilver-tongued Bates; the profound Jackſon, Owen, and Charnock; the perſuaſive Hopkins, Baxter, Patrick; the argumentative Butler, Clarke, Jortin, Balguy; the comprehensive Manton, Barrow; the exact Tillotſon; the primitive Beveridge; the judicious Hooker, Sanderſon; the practical Henry Smith, Bolton, and Secker, and their numerous, no leſs eminent, contemporaries and ſucceſſors. The ſubjects which theſe great men, as well as the leſs prominent authors, have evolved from the texts they have choſen for elucidation, which are given at length when they themſelves ſtate them, and therefore only in their own words, may be made very ſuggeſtive by all who follow them in the ſame ſtudies; thus, by the array of ſubjects preſented in this volume, a kind of running commentary may be obtained throughout the whole Scriptures, clear ſtatements of the chief points of doctrine and fact, and happy expreſſions of thought, throwing direct light on many difficult paſſages. The predominate teaching, and deficiencies of teaching, of different churches, may in ſome degree be aſcertained. It is for inſtance remarkable, that from ſome denominations of Chriſtians no printed ſermon has emanated on the ſubject of Baptiſm; ſome ſermons from them may be found on the controverſy about infant-baptiſm, but none on the nature, advantages, and reſponſibilities of that ſacrament,—the ordinance which was the ſubject of our Lord's laſt charge immediately before His aſcenſion into heaven. The relative importance of texts is alſo often indicated by the relative number of celebrated ſermons founded upon them, and in thoſe caſes where there is ſome difficulty which Biblical commentators have not fully explained, the ſtudent's attention is directed to thoſe fuller expoſitions afforded by pulpit diſcourſes. Above all, the earneſt preacher, deſirous to bring forth from his ſtorehouſe things new and old, is here directed to the valuable labours of his predeceſſors on any verſe which he may chooſe, and thus he is enabled to improve on all that has hitherto been done for the elucidation of Divine truth, producing the "true antiquity" of Lord Bacon, by adding ſomething to the labours of paſt times.

Bibliographical arrangements of ſubjects, hitherto, with the exception of ſermons, have chiefly been limited to thoſe of books which have been ſeparately published in diſtinct volumes, ſo that thoſe valuable treatiſes published only in collected works find no place under the ſubjects to which they belong. By the plan of this work, following the analyſis of each author's works given in the former volume, each diſtinct treatiſe will be found under its appropriate ſubject. The italics at the end of each article denote the title of the publication of which it forms a part; the numerals that follow denote the page or volume; or when two ſeparate numbers are given, the firſt denotes the volume, and the ſecond the page. The title of any book referred to, with ſome account and character of the author, will generally be found more at large in the Cyclopædia Bibliographica, Authors. Authors introduced into the preſent volume for the firſt time will be given in a ſucceeding volume. When any article forms a ſeparate publication, the italics at the end of the line denote the place where printed, and the numerals the date of publication. Under each ſubject, book, chapter, or verſe, authors are arranged in chronological order, not with any attempt at very minute exactness, but generally sufficient to show the succession of writers.

Numerous works have been consulted for the present volume, but special use has been made of the following: the "Bibliotheca Sacra" of Le Long (the complete edition, containing his ample bibliography of commentators, 2 vol. folio, 1723), the "Bibliothèque Sacrée" of Calmet, annexed to his "Dictionnaire de la Bible," a most impartial, enlightened, and learned work; the "Catalogue of our English Writers on the Old and New Testament," 1668, although the loose manner in which titles are given rendered its use only suggestive; Gul. Crowe, "Elenchus Scriptorum in S. Scripturam," 1672, of which the fame may also, in some measure, be said; the Index to the Sermons published since the Restoration, as successively enlarged by Letfome, 1753, and Cooke, 1783, in their "Preacher's Assistant," 2 vol. 8°.; "The British Librarian," by the late W. T. Lowndes, a most useful work, unfortunately left incomplete by the death of the author. Above all, constant use has been made of the valuable "Biblical Bibliography" of the Rev. Thomas Hartwell Horne, D.D., 8°. Lond. 1839, and forming part of his Introduction to the Study of the Scriptures, ninth edition, 1846, and former editions,—the most complete account of works illustrative of the Scriptures which has appeared in modern times, and full of most important bibliographical details.

The compiler has again to acknowledge the candid appreciation of his labours by the conductors of the literary journals, particularly the editors of the "Literary Churchman," the "Christian Remembrancer," "Notes and Queries," and the "Journal of Sacred Literature;" also to the writer of the extended review, in the "London Review," of the former as well as the present volume; the extensive bibliographical information, and the interesting manner of setting it forth, evinced in that article, with the nice discrimination, where "nothing is extenuated, nor ought set down in malice," exhibit rare talent in this important branch of literature. To this review the compiler acknowledges himself indebted for several useful hints.

Another volume similar to the present will include the remaining subjects of Theology, under the title of "The Church, &c." It will include LITURGIES and Liturgical Works—the Festivals, Fasts, and other days observed throughout the year. COUNCILS—CANONS. CHURCH—Government, Discipline, Creeds, Confessions. NATURAL AND REVEALED RELIGION. DOCTRINAL THEOLOGY—Systems, the Existence and Attributes of the Deity; the Holy Trinity; Jesus Christ, his Divinity, Incarnation, Sacrifice, Atonement, Resurrection, &c.; the Holy Spirit, his Divinity, Operations, &c.; Angels; the Soul; Creation, Fall, and Redemption of Man; the Covenants, Faith, Justification, Free-will, Predestination; the Sabbath and the Lord's Day; the Sacraments, Baptism, Confirmation; the Lord's Supper; Death, Intermediate State; the Second Advent, Resurrection, Future State. PRACTICAL DIVINITY—Systems, the Christian Life; Happiness; Conscience, and Cases of Conscience; the true Christian; Duties in the various relations of Life; Meditations, Prayers, Mystical Divinity, Sicknefs, Consolatory Treatises. POLEMICAL DIVINITY—on the Investigation of Truth, Controversy, Freethinking, Atheism, Deism, Judaism, Ancient Heresies; Controversies between Protestants and Roman Catholics; Socinianism, Arminianism, Calvinism. HEATHEN THEOLOGY AND MYTHOLOGY—Brahminism, Mahometanism, &c.

This volume will be ready for the press in a few months, but its publication will be greatly facilitated by the encouragement that may be given to it, by an increased number of subscribers' names being received by the publisher, either for the parts as published, or for the entire volume when completed.

Most of the books referred to in this work may be consulted in the British Museum, arrangements having been made to sell to that institution all the books of the late Metropolitan Library that were not previously in the Museum. That Library having contained the greater part of them.

Tiguri, 1545

— Pandectarum, five partitionum universalium C. Gesneri libri xxi. seu Bibliothecæ tomus secundus. 2 parts in 1 vol. Fol. Tig. 1548-9

A valuable work, for the period in which it was published: the Bibliotheca contains the authors in alphabet, with the titles of their works; the Pandectæ contain the works of authors, arranged according to subjects; the Pandectæ Medicinæ (liber 20) never appeared.

— Bibliotheca, aucta per J. Simlerum. Folio.

Tiguri, 1574

An abridgment of the former Bibliotheca. It was first published 1555, reprinted with further additions, but incorrectly, Tiguri, 1583.

De mandato et sumptibus Cardinalis Francisci Ximenis de Cisneros. 6 vol. Folio.

In Complutenfi Universitate, 1514-15-17

This splendid Polyglott, the first that was published, and generally known as the Complutenian, was executed by the order, and at the expense (50,000 ducats), of Cardinal Ximenes, at Alcalá, in Spain.

The editors were Ælius Antonius Nebrissenfis, Demetrius Ducas, Ferdinandus Pincianus, Lopez de Stunica, Alphonfus de Zamora, Paulus Coronellus, and Johannes de Vergera. The last three were converted Jews.

The whole was carried on under the constant superintendance of Cardinal Ximenes. The printing was commenced in 1502, and completed in 1517; but the work was not published until 1522. Thus the Greek New Testament was printed for the first time in it, although the edition by Erasmus was the first that was published. The Septuagint has the advantage of being printed conformably to the order of the Hebrew. Copies of this great work are of very rare occurrence. The impression was limited to 600. Dr. Whitaker's copy in calf, sold for 67*l.* at Sotheby's, 1857.

Three copies are known to exist printed on vellum, of which one was placed in the Royal Library at Madrid; another in the Royal Library at Turin; the third was purchased at the Pinelli sale, 1789, for Count M^cCarthy, for 483*l.*; at whose sale, in 1817, it was bought by Mr. Hibbert for 16,100 francs; and again at his sale, 1829, by Payne and Foss, for 525*l.*

The first four volumes contain the Old Test. in Heb. Latin, and Greek, in three distinct columns, the Chaldee paraphrase being at the bottom of the page, with a Latin interpretation. The margin is filled with Hebrew and Chaldee radicals. The 5th vol. contains the New Test. in Greek, with the Latin Vulgate, and in the margin a concordance.

Biblia Sacra, Hebraice, Chaldaice, Græcæ et Latine, Philippi II., Regis Catholici, pietate, et studio ad sacrosanctæ ecclesiæ usum. CHRISTOPHORUS PLANTINUS excudebat. 8 vol. Folio. Antverpiæ, 1569-73

Edited by B. Arias Montanus.

Generally known as the Antwerp or Royal Polyglott. It is beautifully printed, and of considerable rarity, a great part of the impression having been lost in a voyage to Spain. In addition to the whole of the Complutenian Polyglott, it contains a Chaldee paraphrase of part of the Old Testament not given in that edition; also a Syriac version of the New Testament, and the Latin translation of Pagninus, as revised by Montanus. 500 copies were printed. Sir M. Sykes' copy sold for 31*l.* 10*s.*

Vol. 1-4 comprise the Old Test.

Vol. 5. The New Test. Greek text, with the Vulgate translation, and the Syriac version, in Hebrew characters, with Latin translation.

Also with titles dated 1599 and 1616.

In this Polyglott the Hebrew and Greek texts are given according to the Complutensian. It is of uncommon occurrence.

Biblia Græca [ex ed. Complutens], Latina ex versione tam Vulgata, quam Santis Pagnini, et Germanica ex versione Lutheri. Edita studio DAVIDIS WOLDERI. 4 vol. Folio.

Hamb. J. Lucius, 1596

This work was also issued, with Hutter's Hebrew Bible, as the first volume, under the following titles,—

Vol. 1. Bibliorum quadrilinguam tomus primus; Textus Hebraicus eleganti et majuscula forma [&c. being the same edition as that printed separately in 1587.]

Vol. 2. Sacrorum Bibliorum quadrilinguam, tomus secundus trilinguis, Græcus, Latinus, Germanicus.

Vol. 3-5. With similar titles.

In all 5 vol. Folio. Hamb. J. Lucius, 1596

Some copies were issued under the following title,—

Opus quadrupartitum S. Scripturæ, continens Sacra Biblia lingua Ebraica, Græca, Latina, et Germanica. 5 vol. Folio. Hamb. ex Bibliopoli Commeliniano, 1603

Biblia Sacra, Ebraice, Chaldaice, Græce, Latine, Germanice, Gallice. Ex dispositione et adoratione ELLÆ HUTTERI, Germani. Folio.

Norib. 1599

Contains only Genesis to Ruth, this very scarce work never having been further continued. Some copies have another language substituted in the last column, such as the Italian, or Slavonic, instead of the French.

Novum Testamentum, Syriace, Hebraice, Græce, Latine, Germanice, Bohemice, Italice, Hispanice, Gallice, Anglice, Danice, Polonice. Studio et labore ELLÆ HUTTERI. 2 vol. Folio. Norimb. 1599

This Polyglott, consisting of twelve languages, is very scarce. In it Hutter's Hebrew version of the New Testament first appeared. Heber's sale, 3l. 5s.

Biblia Hebraica, Samarit., Chald., Syr., Gr., Lat., et Arab. 10 vol. Large Folio. Par. 1628-45

This Polyglott, edited by LE JAY, although very beautifully printed, is not much in demand. Its large size renders it so inconvenient for use that it found few purchasers when published, and its editor was ruined by it. In addition to the contents of the Complutensian and Antwerp Polyglotts, it contains a Syriac and Arabic version of the greater part of the Old Testament, and of the whole of the New. The Samaritan Pentateuch, with a Samaritan version, was printed in it for the first time. Le Jay was assisted by Philippus Aquinas, Jacobus Morinus, Abraham Echellensis, Gabriel Sionata, and J. Hefronite. Some copies were issued with a new title, viz., "Biblia Alexandina Heptaglotta, Par. 1666."

Biblia Sacra Polyglotta, complectentia textus originales, Hebraicum, cum Pentateucho Samaritano, Chaldaicum, Græcum, versionumque antiquarum Samaritanæ, Græcæ LXXII interp. Chaldaicæ, Syriacæ, Arabicæ, Æthiopicæ,

Folio. Lond. 1831

This excellent and now scarce Polyglott, published by Bagster (at 8l. 8s.), originally appeared in 1819 and 1828, without the Prolegomena. It contains the Hebrew text of the Old Testament, from Van der Hooght; the Greek text of the New Testament, from Mill's edition, with Griesbach's various readings; the Samaritan Pentateuch, from Kennicott: the Septuagint, from Bos; the Peshito, or old Syriac version of the New Testament; and the entire Bible, in the Vulgate Latin; English authorized version; German, by Dr. Martin Luther; Italian, by Diodati; French, by Ostervald; Spanish, by Scio. The Prolegomena contain the literary history of the text and versions of the Bible.

This is the most complete and most valuable of the Rabbinical Bibles. It is founded on Bomberg's editions, and contains Buxtorf's additions, with additional remarks by the editor, Moses Ben Simeon of Frankfort.

Biblia Heb. cum punctis. 4°.

Venet. in Officina Justinianæ, opera Cornelii Adelkind, 5311 et 5312 (1551 et 1552)

This is the first and best of the editions from the press of Giustiniani. A copy on vellum is in the Imperial Library at Paris, bound in 4 vol.

— sine punctis. 4°. Antv. C. Plantinus, 1566

Two other editions were printed by Plantin in this year, one in 2 vol. 8°. and the other in 13 parts, 16°. generally bound in 4 vol.

— cum interlineari interpretatione Latina Xantis

Pagnini: accessit Bibliorum pars quæ Hebraice non reperitur: item Novum Testamentum, Græcæ, cum Vulgata interpretatione Lat. interlineari; studio B. A. MONTANI. Folio. Antv. C. Plantinus, 1572

This is a separate publication of the seventh volume of the Antwerp Polyglott. It was reprinted by Plantin in 1584, with the addition of the Apocrypha in Greek and Latin interlineary. Other editions were printed in folio at Geneva, 1609 (or with another title-page, 1619), and at Leipzig (with a preface, by the Theologians of that city), 1657; also, in 4 vol. 8°. Lugd. Bat. 1599, and 1610-13. The two editions by Plantin are beautifully printed, and very rare.

Biblia Heb., majusculis characteris impressa, quibus radicales et serviles, deficientes et quiescentes situ et colore discernuntur, cura ELLÆ HUTTERRI. Folio. Hamb. 1587-88

The plan adopted in printing this edition is ingenious and useful, especially to young students. All the servile letters are in outline only, the rest are black, by which the radicals are at once seen. The volume generally contains also "Cubus Alphabeticus Ebrææ Linguae, vel Lexici Hebraici novum compendium."

— sine punctis. 2 vol. 24°. Hanov. 1610
Very small print.

— ex recensione R. MENASSEH BEN ISRAEL. 4°. Amst. 1635

A beautiful, correct, and rare edition.

— cum punctis: accedit R. Jacob præfatio et commentarius. 2 vol. 4°. Venet. 5399 (1639)
Esteemed and rare.

— cum punctis, opera et studio J. G. NISSELI. Sm. 8°. L. Bat. 1662

Very small print, with the titles of the books and chapters in Latin.

— accuratissima, notis Hebraicis et lemmatibus Latinis, illustrata à JOANNE LEUSDEN. 8°. Amst. J. Athias, 1667

The first edition by Athias appeared in 1661. Both are well edited.

— cum punctis: item cum notis Hebraicis, et lemmatibus Latinis, ex recens. D. E. JABLONSKI, cum ejus præfatione Latina. 4°. Berol. 1699

One of the most important, correct, and rare editions of the Hebrew Bible. The same editor published an edition, without points, in 4 parts, 32°. with a short Latin preface.

— cum punctis et comment. Raschi, seu R. Sim. Jarchi, studio DAV. NUNNES TORRES. 4 vol. in 2. 12°. Amst. 1700-5

— sine punctis; notis Masoretarum quas Kri et Krif appellant instructa, ad Leusdenianam editionem adornata. 12°. Amst. 1701

— secundum ultimam editionem Jos. Athiæ, à J. Leusden, denuo recognitam, recensita, atque ad Masoram, et correctiores, Bombergi, Stephani, Plantini, aliorumque editiones; exquisite adornata, variisque notis illustrata ab E. VAN DER HOOHT. 2 vol. 8°. Amst. 1705

A very accurate and elegant edition, much sought after. It may be considered to be the textus receptus of the Heb. Bible, as it has been followed in nearly all subsequent editions.

Biblia Hebraica, cum optimis impressis et MSS. collata et recensita, studio HENR. OPITH. 4°. Kilonii, 1709

Much esteemed, although the typography is inferior.

— ex aliquot MSS. et compluribus impressis codicibus. Cum adnotationibus Latinis, cura et studio D. J. H. MICHAELIS. 4°. Hale Magd. 1720

A good edition. There are copies in large 8°. and on very large paper, 4°.

— cum notis Masorethicis, et singularium capitulum summaris Latinis, accurate M. C. REINECCIO. 2 vol. in 1. 4°. Lips. 1739

— secundum editionem Van der Hooght, una cum versione Latina SEBAST. SCHMIDII. 2 vol. 4°. Lips. 1740

The Latin translation by Schmidt has been much commended.

— cum versione Latina, cura et studio LUDOVICI DE BIEL, e Soc. Jesu. 4 vol. 8°. Vienne, 1743

An elegant edition. It contains two Latin versions,—the Vulgate and that of Montanus.

— Manualia ad Hoghtianam ed. Edita à JOHANNES SIMONIS. 8°. Hale, 1753

A good edition, some copies contain the "Lexicon Manuale Hebraicum et Chaldaicum," printed in 1757. Reprinted, with the Lexicon, 1767, 1822, and 1828; of the latter editions there are copies on fine paper.

— sine punctis, accurate NATH. FORSTER. 2 vol. 4°. Oxonii, 1750

A beautiful and scarce edition. There are copies on large paper.

— cum notis criticis et versione Latina ad notas criticas facta. Accedunt libri Græci, qui Deutero-canonici vocantur, in tres classes distributi. Autore C. F. HOUBIGANT. 4 vol. Folio. Par. 1753

An esteemed edition, without points, beautifully printed; only five hundred copies were printed. Twelve manuscripts were collated for the Hebrew text. The Latin version by Houbigant is admired for its elegance and energy, and has been printed separately, in 8 vol. 8°. Par. 1753. The Prolegomena have also appeared in 4°. 1746-53, and the "Notæ Criticæ," including the Prolegomena, in 2 vol. 4°. 1757.

The Old Testament, English and Hebrew, with remarks, critical and grammatical on the Hebrew, and corrections of the English. By ANSELM BAYLEY, LL.D. 4 vol. 8°. Lond. 1774

In this edition a sentence is omitted in Job, 5. 24.

Biblia Heb. ex recensione NORZII, cum ejusdem commentario. 2 vol. 4°. Mantua, 1741

An edition esteemed for its commentary. A passage is omitted in Isa. chap. 14, verses 26 and 27, which is supplied by a separate leaf inserted.

Biblia en dos columnas Hebrayco y Español Folio. Amst. 5522 (1762)

Vetus Testamentum Hebraicum, cum varii lectionibus. Edidit BENJAMINUS KENNICOTT Ædis Christi Canonicus et Bibliothecarius Radclivianus. 2 vol. Folio. Oxonii, 1776-8

EDITIONS OF THE GREEK NEW TESTAMENT.

The four principal standard-text editions of the Greek New Testament, together with the principal editions which are founded upon them, have been arranged as follows:—

1. ERASMUS, 1516-19-22-27-35, on which are founded those of,—Aldus, folio, 1518. Gerbelius, 4°. 1521. Cephalæus, 8°. 1524. Bebelius, 8°. 1524, 1531-35. Colinaeus, 8°. 1534. Platterus, 8°. 1538-40-43. Van Els, 8°. Gr. et Lat. 1827.
2. COMPLUTENSIS, 1514, on which are founded those of,—Plantin, 8°. 1564-73-74-90-91-1601-12; folio, Gr. et Lat. 1572; 8°. 1574-83; folio, 1584. Geneva, Gr. 1609; 24°. 1619, 1620. Goldhagen, 1753; 8°. Gratz, 8°. Gr. Lat. 1821.
3. ROBERT STEPHENS, 1546-49-50, on which are founded those of,—Oporinus, 12°. 1552. Wechel, folio, 1597; 12°. 1600; folio, 1601; 12°. 1629. Imp. Nicolai Dulcis, folio, 1687, edit. Regia, folio, 1642. Crispin, 12°. 1553-63-1604; 12°. Gr. et Lat. 1612-22. Froschoverus, 8°. 1559-66. Brylingerus, 8°. 1563. Voegelius, 8°. 1564. Vignoni, 12°. 1584-87-1613-15. Beza, folio, Gr. et Lat. 1565-82-89-98-1612. Walton, folio, Gr. Lat. 1657. Mill, folio, 1707. Kuster, folio, 1710-23. Birch, 1788, folio et 4°. Hardy, 8°. 1768-1776, 1819. Valpy, 1816, 1826, 8°. Lloyd, 18°. 1828, 1851. Greenfield, 48°. 1829. Bloomfield, 1832-1855. 8°. Cambridge, 1834. Trollope, 8°. 1837. Grinfield, 1843.
4. ELZEVIUS, 1624-33, &c., on which are founded those of,—Boeclerus, 8°. 1645. Curcellæus, 8°. 1658-75-85-99. Fell, 8°. 1675. König, 8°. 1697-1702. Gregorius, folio, 1703. G. D. T. M. D. 8°. 1711-35. Wettstein, folio, 1715. Birrius, 8°. 1749. White, 8°. 1808. Basil. 8°. 1825. Lond. 48°. 1827.

The editions of Bengel, Bowyer, Griesbach, Alter, Harwood, Knappe, Tittman, Boissonade, Lachmann, Scholz, Naebe, Gœschen, Tischendorf, Alford, Wordsworth, Tregelles, are not formed on the text of either of the above editions.

Novum Testamentum, Gr. et Lat. In academia Complutensi noviter impressum. Folio. 1514

This was the first printed Greek Testament, but not the first published, as it was not issued until 1520. It forms the fifth volume of the Complutensian Polyglott.

— omne, diligenter ab ERASMO ROTERODAMO recognitum et emendatum [Gr. et Lat.], cum annotationibus. 2 vol. in 1. Folio.

Basil. 1516

The first published edition of the Greek Testament, very rare and much sought after. Title and preliminary matter, Ff. 14; the Gospels and Acts, Pp. 1-324; Rom. to Rev., Pp. 1-224; Notes, Pp. 225-672 [676]; Errata, F. 1; Register, &c., F. 1, the latter often wanting.

Sykes' sale, 5l.; Drury, 4l. 10s.; Williams, in mor., 8l.; Hibbert, 10l. 10s.; Heber, 3l. 7s. 6d. A copy printed or vellum, without the annotations, produced 140l. at Si. M. Sykes' sale.

Reprinted, folio, Basil. 1519.

GREEK TESTAMENT (continued).

Preliminary matter, Pp. 120; Nov. Test., Pp. 566; Errata, &c., F. 1.

In this edition the text is revised and corrected in 330 passages.

Sykes' sale, in mor., 10l. 10s.; Hibbert, 4l. 4s.

A third ed. "Tertio jam ac diligentius ab Erasmo recognitum." The text, 1 John, v. 7, first appears in it. 2 vol. in 1, folio, Basil. 1522.

Sykes, 4l. 4s.; Hibbert, 3l.

A fourth edition, 2 vol. in 1, folio, Basil. 1527.

In this ed. the Latin Vulgate is added in a third column, and the Greek text is corrected from the Complutensian Polyglot.

A fifth edition, folio, Basil. 1535.

This is the last that was superintended by Erasmus himself, and it is the most correct of his valuable editions, which in authority are considered nearly equal to manuscript. The first three are the most rare. They are elegantly printed. The work appeared in a complete and correct manner, in the sixth volume of Erasmus' works, L. Bat. 1703, of which some copies were printed with a separate title.

Nov. Test., Gr. [cum præfatione] N. GERBELII.

Sm. 4°. Hagenæ, 1521

A rare ed. It is chiefly a compilation from the first two editions of Erasmus and the Aldine. Reprinted 1524 at Basse.

— Gr. 8°. Argent. CEPHALÆUS, 1524

This forms the fourth volume to the Septuagint by the same printer. It follows the edition of Gerbelius.

— Gr. 8°. Par. S. COLINÆUS, 1534

An edition of singular rarity, beauty, and correctness. The text is formed in part on the Complutensian, and in part on the fourth edition of Erasmus, corrected on the authority of many good manuscripts. According to Harwood, it exhibits the truest text of the sacred writers that had up to this time been published.

— Gr. 2 vol. Sm. 8°. Venet. N. de Sabio, 1538

A rare edition, formed on one of Erasmus.

— Gr. et Lat. 8°. Par. Bogardus, 1543

An excellent edition.

— Gr. ex Bibliotheca Regia. 2 vol. in 1. 16°.

Par. R. STEPHANUS, 1546

A beautiful edition, chiefly from the Complutensian, and a collation of MSS. It is known as the "O mirificum" edition, owing to the preface commencing in that manner.

Reprinted, 2 vol. in 16°. Par. R. Stephanus, 1549.

Contains some improvements on the former, and is very correct. It is known by a misprint of pures instead of pharis in the last line but one of the first page of the preface.

— Gr. ex Bibliotheca Regia. Folio.

Lut. R. Stephanus, 1550

A splendid and critical edition, which has justly excited the admiration of the curious and the learned, although it has not escaped the censure of Bentley, who says, that "although the text stands as if an apostle had been its composer, its errors are numerous." It contains various readings in the margin from sixteen MSS., and the text has been esteemed so correct, that it has formed the basis of Walton, Mill, and of most subsequent editions.

— Gr. cum duplici interpretatione D. Erasmi et veteris interpretis. Harmonia item evangelica et copioso indice. 16°.

Ex Officina R. STEPHANI, 1551

An edition of great interest and rarity, being the first that was divided into verses.

Pinelli, 1l. 5s.; McCarthy, 25 fr.; Williams, in mor., 1l. 10s.

GREEK TESTAMENT (continued).

Nov. Test., Gr. 12°. Bafil. J. Operinus, 1552

Rare.

— Græce et Latine, primo quidem studio et industria D. Erasmi accurate editum, nunc autem magna diligentia collatis compluribus exemplaribus denuo expressum. Sm. 8°.

Bafil. 1553

— Gr. 12°. Gen. J. Crispinus, 1553

Beautifully printed after Stephens's text. Reprinted by Crispin, 12°. Gen. 1564, 1604, 1612, 1622. Also Gr. et Lat. 1622. That of 1564 is very correct.

— Gr. et Lat. Sm. 8°.

Lugd. J. Tornæsius, 1559

— cujus Græco textui respondent interpretationes duæ, una vetus, altera THEOD. BEZÆ. Ejuſdem Bezzæ annotationes et responſio ad S. Castellionem. Folio.

Gen. H. Stephanus, 1565

Reprinted, folio, 1582, 1589, 1598. The best edition is that with the notes of Camerarius added. Camb. 1642. Folio. The Greek text is founded on Stephens's ed. of 1550.

— Gr. cum interlineari interpretatione Latina.

Bibl. Heb. Montani

— Gr. 12°. L. Bat. ELZEVIUS, 1624

This is the first of the celebrated Elzevir editions. It is beautifully and correctly printed, chiefly after the text of Stephens's ed. of 1550. Having been followed in all editions for above a hundred years afterwards, it has acquired the name of the textus receptus. It was reprinted 1633, edited by Leusden (equally celebrated and more sought after); also 1641 (of which there was a counterfeit, distinguishable by having the text divided into columns). At Amst. 1656, 1662 (much esteemed), 1670 and 1678. All in 12°.

— Gr. ex regis aliisque optimis editionibus cum cura expressum. 32°.

Sedani, J. Jannon, 1628

One of the smallest in size ever printed, and very scarce.

— Gr. Sm. 16°. Amst. G. BLÆU, 1633

A very small and beautiful edition, much sought after.

— Gr. Folio. Par. ex typ. Regia, 1642

Splendidly printed.

— Gr., editio nova, in qua diligentius quam antea variantes lectiones et parallela Scripturæ loca annotata sunt, studio S. CURCELLÆI. 12°.

Amst. Elzevir, 1658

Very beautiful and correct, esteemed for the various readings and parallel passages. Reprinted 1675, 1685, and 1699. All are scarce.

— Gr. Huic editioni omnia difficiliorum vocabulorum themata, quæ in G. Paforis lexico, grammaticæ resolvuntur, in margine, Carolus Hoole. 12°. Lond. 1674

— Gr. acceſſerunt parallela Scripturæ loca, necnon variantes lectiones ex plus 100 MSS. codd. et antiquis versionibus collecta. Sm. 8°.

This valuable and beautiful edition was the labour of thirty years. The various readings are much more extensive than had formerly been given, and the prolegomena contain "a treasure of sacred criticism."

The same edition is found with a change of title-pages dated Leipf. 1723, and Amst. 1746. Although it is neither so beautiful nor correct as Mill's own edition, it is sometimes preferred for the additions it contains.

An excellent edition; the text is not formed on any particular one, but is corrected and improved according to the editor's judgment, with an extraordinary degree of conscientiousness, sound discrimination, and good taste.

Reprinted at Tubingen 1763, edited by Burk, with important corrections and additions. Several small editions, without the Apparatus, were published: viz., at Stutgard, 1734, 1739, 1753; at Tubingen, 1762, 1776, 1790; and

Lond. J. BOWYER, 1763

Very correct. To some copies there is a preface concerning the various readings; others have, instead, a short table of the chief editions printed after MSS. The conjectural emendations were afterwards published separately: in 8°, 1772, in 4°, 1782, much enlarged, and again enlarged in 1812, 4°. The Greek New Test. was reprinted 1772, 2 vol. 12°, and 1782, 4°, but not so correctly as the first.

MARTINUS AUGUSTINUS SCHOLZ. 2 vol. 4°. Lips. 1830–36

This edition gives the result of a very laborious collation of manuscripts, relying rather on the Constantinopolitan than the Alexandrine. "If Scholz's text is compared with that of Griesbach, it will be seen that it is a retrograde step in the application of criticism; and thus, though he maintained a truer system of families than Griesbach did, yet his results are even less satisfactory, because he applied a theory to the classification of authorities by which their respective value was precisely reversed."—TREGELLES.

EDITIONS OF THE GREEK SEPTUAGINT.

The four principal standard-text editions of the Septuagint Greek version (Complutensian, Aldine, Vatican, and Alexandrine), together with the principal editions which are founded upon them, have been arranged as follows:—

1. COMPLUTENSIAN TEXT, 1514. Antwerp Polyglott, Gr. Lat. &c., 1569-72. Commelinus (Vatablus), folio, 1586, 1599, 1616. Wolderus, folio, 1596. Hutter, folio, 1599, Gr. Lat., &c. Paris Polyglott, folio, Gr. Lat., &c. 1645.
2. ALDINE TEXT, 1518. Cephalæus, 8°. 1526. Hervægus, folio, 1545. Brylingerus, 8°. 1550. Wechelii hæred. folio, 1597.
3. ROMAN, OR VATICAN TEXT, 1587. Waltoni Polyglott, folio, Gr. Lat. &c., 1657. Morinus, folio, Gr. Lat. 1628. Daniel, 4°. et 8°. 1653, 1665, 1683. Cluverus, 8°. 1697. Bos, 4°. 1709. Mill, 8°. 1725. Reineccius, 8°. 1730, 1757. Kirchnerus, 8°. 1759. Holmes, folio, Gr. 1798, &c. The editions printed at Oxford, 8°. 1805, 1817, &c. Valpy, 1819. L. Van Els, 1824. Tischendorf, 1850. Bagster, 8°. 1851.
4. THE ALEXANDRINE TEXT, 1707-9-19-20. Breitinger, 4°. 1730-32. Reineccius, Biblia Quadrilingua, folio, Gr. Lat. 1750. Baber, folio, 1816-27. Moscow, 4°. Athens, 1843.

Biblia Græca; cum versione Latina ad verbum. Biblia Polyglotta, Complutensi, 1514, &c.

This first edition of the Septuagint has the advantage of being conformed to the order of the Hebrew Bible, while other editions preserve a different order. The Complutensian editors have been hitherto much censured by the learned chiefly on this account, and charged with having corrupted the text; but their edition has been vindicated by Michaelis, and recently by the Rev. E. W. Grinfield.

Sacræ Scripturæ Veteris Novæque omnia, Gr. Folio. Venet. in ædibus Aldi, 1518

- 4 folios not numbered, including title, 451 numbered, and 2 folios containing the register and the Aldine anchor.
- This beautiful and rare edition is printed from a collation of MSS. The New Test. is from Erasmus, of 1516. 111. 112. Heber's sale. There are copies on large paper. Sykes, 421.; Williams, 491.
- Divinæ Scripturæ Veteris Novæque omnia, Gr. 4 vol. 8°. Argent. W. Cephalæus, 1526-24
- Of great rarity. Sometimes bound in 5 vol. From the Aldine edition, except that the Apocryphal books are placed apart at the end of vol. 3. The New Testament, or fourth volume, is dated 1524. Some copies of the four volumes have titles dated 1529.
- Divinæ Scripturæ Veteris ac Novi Testamenti omnia, innumeris locis nunc demum, et optimorum librorum collatione et doctorum virorum opera, multo quam unquam emendatiora, in lucem edita. Folio. Basil. per J. Hervægium, 1545
- With preface by Melanchthon. This correct and rare edition chiefly follows that of Cephalæus, with some various readings. Reprinted 1548, folio, with ornamental heads and borders at the commencement of most of the books of the Old Testament.
- Biblia Græca, Gr. et Lat. 5 vol. 8°. Basil. Brylinger, 1550
- Rare. The Greek is from the Aldine edition, the Latin from the Complutensian. Some copies have title-pages dated 1582.
- Vetus Testamentum Græcum juxta Septuaginta, ex auctoritate Sexti V., editum studio Antonii Carafæ cardinalis, cum præfatione et scholiis PETRI MORINI. Folio. Romæ, 1586
- A beautiful, rare, and valuable edition. Some copies are dated 1587. Ff. 4. pp. 783. A leaf of "Corrigenda" is added in some copies. 3l. 3r. Heber. The following is a useful accompaniment to this edition:—
- Vetus Testamentum, secundum LXX. Latine redditum, ex auctoritate Sixti V. [studio et cura FLAMINII NOBILII]. Folio. Romæ, 1587 or 1588
- 1l. 13r. Butler.
- Vetus Test. Gr. et Lat., cum scholiis Romanæ editionis, accessit Novum Testamentum, studio et labore JOANNIS MORINI. 3 vol. Folio. Par. 1628
- This is a republication of the Greek text of 1586, with the Latin version and notes of Nobilius, and with the addition of the New Testament in Greek and Latin. The verses are distinguished. Some copies are dated 1641. 3l. 11r. Hibbert.
- Divinæ Scripturæ nempe Veteris ac Novi Testamenti omnia, Gr. recens à viro doctissimo et linguarum peritissimo diligenter recognita. Fol. Franc. Wechelii Hæredes, 1597
- An esteemed edition. Edited by Francis Junius, or Frederic Sylburgius. The text is from the edition of Hervægus, 1545, with various readings from the Complutensian, Antwerp, Straßburg, and Roman editions. The New Testament is from R. Stephens' ed. of 1550.
- Vetus Test. Gr. ex versione Septuaginta interpretum. In S. Biblia Græca scholia, simul et interpretum cæterorum lectiones variantes. Nov. Test. Gr. Sm. 4°. London. Roger Daniel, 1653
- A correct and elegant edition, in which the Septuagint is arranged according to the order of the Hebrew.
- præcedit præfatio J. P. [JOANNIS PEARSONI];

additis Deutero-canonice ac Novo Testamento.
3 vol. 12°. Cantab. J. Field, 1665

This small, neat, and correct edition of the Septuagint, follows that of Daniel. The Liturgy of the Church of England in Greek was printed uniformly by the same printer.

A counterfeit, but inferior edition, was executed by John Hayes at Cambridge, 1684, under Field's name, and the date of 1665.

Vet. Test. juxta exemplar Vaticanum. 12°.

Amst. 1683

A reprint of Field's edition, with Pearson's preface, sometimes attributed to Leusden.

— juxta exemplar Vaticanum, accessit Novum Testamentum [cura M. J. Cluveri et T. Klumpffii]. 2 vol. 8°. Lips. 1697

vol. in 2. Folio. Oxonii, 1707-9-10-20

Or 8 vol. 8°. being the same edition printed off in that size.

A beautiful edition, exhibiting the text of the Alexandrine MS. in the British Museum, with the asterisks and obelisks of Origen as far as they could be recovered. The whole of the Septuagint was prepared for the press by Grabe, but he only lived to edit the first and fourth volumes. The second was edited by Francis Lee, M.D., and the third by W. Wigan, S.T.D. The Prolegomena, by Dr. Grabe, contain a treasure of sacred criticism.

— secundum exemplar Vaticanum Romæ editum, accuratissime denuo recognitum, una cum scholiis ejusdem editionis, variis scriptorum codicum veterumque exemplarium lectionibus, &c. Summa cura edidit LAMBERTUS BOS. 4°. Franeq. 1709

An accurate and much-esteemed edition.

— secundum exemplar Vaticanum, recensuit D. MILLIUS. 2 vol. Sm. 8°. Amst. 1725

Including the Apocrypha. Well printed and esteemed.

— ex editione J. E. Grabe, nunc vero lectionibus variis, nec non criticis dissertationibus illustratum, cura J. J. BREITINGERI. 4 vol. 4°.

Tiguri, 1730-32

One of the best editions of the Septuagint. In addition to a correct reprint of Grabe's edition, it contains the various readings of the Vatican MS., and of three MSS. at Basle.

— una cum libris Apocryphis, secundum exemplar Vaticanum, &c. C. REINECCI. 8°.

This extremely rare edition, printed with Hebrew types, and accompanied with the Hebrew text, is reprinted in Walton's Polyglott, vol. 4, with Persian characters, and with a Latin translation.

A new translation of the Four Gospels, by Lieut.-Col.
Colbrooke, was printed at Calcutta in 1804. The New Testament, translated by the Rev. H. Martyn, was printed at St. Petersburg, 1815, 4°, and at Calcutta, 1816, 8°.
The Bible, translated by the Rev. Mr. Glen, was printed 1845. The Old Testament, translated from the Hebrew, by the Rev. T. Robinson, master of the Temple, and late

EDITIONS OF THE VULGATE LATIN BIBLE.

- Biblia Latina. 2 vol. Folio. Without place or date, but printed at the press of Guttenberg and Fust at Mentz, about 1450 or 1455.
- This is the first Bible, and the first book that was printed with metal types. It is also one of the most beautiful specimens of typography, showing that at once the art of printing attained its highest perfection. A copy having been first discovered in the library of Cardinal Mazarine, it is known as the Mazarine Bible. It is printed in two columns of forty-two lines each to a full page, with the exception of the first eight, which have forty lines, and of the ninth and tenth, which have forty-one. Vol. 1 contains 324 folios, and Vol. 2, 317. At Gaignat's sale, a copy printed on vellum sold for 210c franc; at McCarthy's, another brought 6260 francs; at Nicols, 504*l.*; on paper, 2500 francs, at Brienne-Laire's sale; 199*l.* 10*s.* at Sykes; 215*l.* at Hibbert's.

Other editions were printed before 1562 without dates, a particular description of which is given by Brunet.

Biblia Latina. 2 vol. Folio.

In civitate Moguntin̄ per

Johes Fust civē et Petru Schoiffber, 1462

This is the first edition of the Latin Bible with a date.

On vellum, 215*l.* 5*s.*, at Waton Taylor's sale; 173*l.* 5*s.*, Dent; 136*l.* 10*s.*, Sykes; 128*l.* 2*s.*, Hibbert. On paper, 105*l.*, Willet.

The following editions appeared in the same century—1 vol. folio, Moguntin̄, per P. Schoiffer, 1472 (36*l.* 15*s.*, Sykes); 2 vol. folio, Romæ, C. Suueynheim et A. Panartz, 1471 (34*l.*, Edwards); 4°. Placentiæ, J. P. de Ferratis, 1475; Small folio, Venet., per F. de Hailbrun et N. de Francofordia, 1475 (5*l.* 7*s.*, Pinelli); 2 vol. folio, Nurembergæ, per A. Coberger, 1475 (this printer issued twelve editions of the Latin Bible, all well printed, on good paper, 2 vol. folio, 1477, &c.); 2 vol. large folio, Nuremb., 1475; Folio, Venetiis, N. Jenfon, 1476 (on vellum, 168*l.*, Willet; 71*l.* 8*s.*, Sykes); Folio, Venet., F. de Hailbrun, &c., 1476 (3*l.* 3*s.*, Pinelli); Folio, [Vicentiæ,] per Leonardum Basileensem, 1476; Folio, Neapoli, per M. Moravum, 1476; 2 vol. large folio, Basilicæ, per B. Richel, 1477; Small folio, Venet. N. Jenfon, 1479. Nearly sixty other editions were printed between 1476 and 1500.

STEPHANI. Large folio.

Par. R. Stephanus, 1538-40

Beautifully printed. Other editions by R. Stephanus:—folio, 1528; folio, 1532; 8°, 1534; folio, 1546; 8°, 1555.

This latter is the first edition in which the entire Bible is divided into verses as now in use. In the Old Test. it chiefly follows the division that had been introduced by Pagninus, in his translation 1527.

Biblia Sacra. 2 vol. Large 8°.

Paris, ex off. R. Stephani, 1545

A very scarce and beautiful edition, printed with a small but distinct type, in two columns: one containing the Vulgate version, the other the Zurich version, according to the edition of 1543. In the margin are the various readings and the notes of Vatablus, respecting which, see under Commentaries. Reprinted 1557. The work was censured by the theologians of Paris, to which Stephen replied in the following work,— Ad censuras theologorum Parisiensium quibus Biblia à Roberto Stephano typographo regio excusa calumniose notarunt ejusdem R. Stephani responso. 8°.

— à Sixto V. recognita et approbata. 3 parts in 1 vol. Folio.

Romæ, ex typographica Apostol. Vatic. 1590

A very rare edition, having been carefully suppressed, on account of the numerous errors found in it, although Pope Sixtus had pronounced it to be the standard by which all future editions were to be printed. Some copies were corrected by having printed slips pasted over the errors. Copies have been sold at fifty guineas, and on large paper at 7*l.*

— Clementis VIII. auctoritate recognita et recusa. Folio.

Romæ, ex typogr. Apostolica Vaticana, 1592

This edition has become the authentic text of all subsequent editions. Ff. 6, including two titles, pp. 1131, and an appendix, pp. 23. Copies on large paper have been sold for 26*l.* 5*s.*, Hibbert; and 42*l.*, Butler.

Along with the preceding edition, it has given rise to the following works:—

Well executed, but sells at a low price. An edition from the same prefs, 2 vol. 4°. 1653, is handsome.

— jussu cleri Gallicani edita. 8 vol. 12°.

Par. A. Vitre, 1652

A good edition. Vitre also printed the following editions, — Folio, with notes by Cl. Lancelot, 1662; and 4°. 1666, much esteemed. Some copies have added to them "Tabulæ Sacræ Geographicæ."

— [jussu Ducis de Richelieu edita.] 3 vol. in 1.

Very fm. 8°. Par. S. Martin, 1656

A beautiful edition, in a very small type. Ff. 14, pp. 434, and 417, in Old Test., and pp. 230, New Test., with an "Index Biblicus," Ff. 28. The New Test. was reprinted in 1657.

— 3 parts in 1 vol. 12°.

Par. F. Coustelier, 1664

A handsome edition.

— 6 vol. 24°. Colon. Agr. B. ab Egmond, 1670

This beautiful edition is said to be from the prefs of the Elsevirs, and that they and Blaeu sometimes printed under the imprint of Coloniae Agrippinae books which they issued for the Roman Catholics. In this way were printed, one in the same form, with the verses distinguished, in 1679; also, 6 vol. 24°, 1639-46-47; 8 vol. 12°, 1666; and in one volume, small 8°, 1682, the most beautiful of all the editions in this form.

— 7 vol. 24°. Par. F. Leonard, 1725

A good edition, in a large type.

— cum universis FRANC. VATABLI et variorum interpretum annotationibus. Latina interpreta-tatio duplex est: altera vetus, altera nova.

Editio postrema multo quam antehac emen-

[SERVETI]. Folio. Lugd. H. à Porta, 1542

Pagninus' version is very literal. This edition was suppressed on account of the notes which it contains of Servetus, under the assumed name of Villanovanus. Pagninus' version was first printed, small folio, at Lyons, 1527. It was the first edition divided into verses, which were more fully developed by Stephens, in his edition of 1555.

Castellio's aim was to render the Scriptures into elegant Latin like the ancient classics.

The work was originally published 1551. Republished, with the author's last corrections, folio, Bafil. 1573, a beautiful edition and generally preferred. The version has been often printed, 4 vol. 12°. Lond. 1726, Lipf. 1738, &c.

— ab Imm. Tremellio et Fr. Junio. Folio.

Hanov. 1624

The best edition of this version so often reprinted. It is still held in great esteem for its simplicity, perspicuity, and fidelity. The translation of the New Testament is by Beza. Neat editions in 12° were printed by Blaeu at Amsterdam, 1631, 1633, 1639, 1648, 1651, &c., and numerous editions were subsequently printed at London and other places.

printed at Worms by Peter Schoeffer, 1525. The first printed edition of the New Testament in English. Translated by William Tyndall. Only one perfect copy is known to exist. It is preserved in the Baptist Museum at Bristol. An exact reprint of this interesting volume was executed at London, 1836, with an introductory memoir of Tyndall, and collations of the text with the revised edition of 1534. Another edition of the same version was printed in the same year in 4°. begun at Cologne by P. Quentel, and finished at Worms, by Peter Schoeffer; but a fragment only remains of it, which is now in the Grenville Library in the British Museum. The Gospels of St. Matthew and St. Mark, translated by Tyndall, were also printed in this year; but no fragment is known to remain. The New Testament was reprinted in 1526, 1527, 1528, and 1530, but no copies of these editions remain.

Three copies of this revised edition by Tyndall are in the British Museum; one on ordinary white paper, one on yellow paper, and a third splendidly printed on vellum, and adorned with illuminations. It is supposed that this last was executed for Queen Anne Boleyn. Six different reprints are supposed to have been made in this year.

The Bible; faythfully and truly translated out of Douche and Latyn into Englyshe, by MYLES COVERDALE. Folio.

Printed in the year of our Lorde, 1535

The first printed edition of the whole Bible in English, supposed to have been executed at Zurich by Chr. Froshover. Only one perfect title-page is known, that of the Earl of Leicester's copy, and only two copies are known to be otherwise perfect. (At Denyer's sale, a copy, imperfect, sold for 39*l.*; Dent, title and two leaves, fac-simile, 89*l.* 5*s.* Heber, wanting several leaves, 63*l.*) This interesting volume was reprinted by Bagster, 4°. Geneva, by Rowland Hall, 1560

A very rare edition, the first of this version, which continued for many years to be the most popular translation in England, and which continued to be printed several years after the present authorized version was published, to several editions of which the annotations were afterwards added. From the peculiar rendering of Gen. 3, 7, the Genevan translation is often designated "the breeches Bible." The translators were Bp. Coverdale, Anthony Gilby, William Whittingham, Christopher Woodman, Thomas Sampson, and Thomas Cole; to whom some add John Knox, John Bodeleigh, and John Pullein. Title, An epistle to Queen Elizabeth, ff. 2; To our beloved in the Lord, f. 1; Gen. to 2 Maccabees, folio 1-474; description of the Holy

Bible, Bishops'. Folio. By R. Barker, 1606
 — Genevan. Folio. Edin. by Andro Hart, 1610

This was the second edition of the Bible printed in Scotland. It was so greatly admired for its correctness that some succeeding editions of the Genevan Bible were printed "conform to the edition printed by Andrew Hart." The New Testament is Tomson's revision. Reprinted, Edin., by Andr. Hart's successors, 1613.

Folio, Lond. 1616; folio, Amst. 1617; 4°. Amst. 1633.
 Numerous other Amsterdam editions were printed about this time.

EDITIONS OF THE AUTHORIZED VERSION.

The Holy Bible, conteyning the Old Testament and the New. Newly translated out of the originall tongues, and with the former translations diligently compared and revised by his majestie's speciall commandment. Black lett. Large folio. Lond. 1611

The first edition of the present translation. An exact reprint of it, page for page, was made at the Clarendon press in 1833, 4°.

A second ed. appeared in the same year (1611), the type of which is larger than that of the first. In the first ed. the Psalms commence on sign. Kk. 1; in the second, on Bbb. 4.

— 4°. Lond. by R. Barker, 1612
 The first quarto ed.

— Folio. Black letter. Lond. 1613
 New Testament. 4°.

Edin. by the heirs of Andro Hart, 1628

The first edition printed in Scotland of any part of King James's version.

— Folio. Camb. Tho. and John Buck, 1629
 A beautiful edition, in which the errors of the first and intermediate editions were corrected. The title-page is engraved on copper.

Bible. 8°. Lond. 1632

At or about this time the King's printers had made a scandalous mistake in leaving out the word not in the seventh commandment; on this being discovered by Abp. Laud, the whole impression was called in, and the printers deeply fined. See Heylin's Life of Laud, 215.

— 8°. Edin. by the printers to the King's most excellent Majestie, 1633

The first edition printed in Scotland of the entire Bible in the authorized version. In some copies of the New Testament engravings, supposed to be impressions from Bolswert's "Imagines Vitæ Jesu Christi," were inserted, which gave great offence. Wodrow called them "such abominable pictures that horrible impiety stares through them."

— Folio. Camb. by T. Buck and R. Daniel, 1638

This handsome edition is said to have been revised, by the King's command, by several learned men of Cambridge, Dr. Ward, Dr. Goad, Mr. Boyse, Mr. Mead, &c. It is supposed to be the first edition in which the error occurred in Acta, 6. 3, where it reads "whom ye may appoint," which was copied into many subsequent editions, and was erroneously attributed to the Independents, and also to the Presbyterians.

Bible. 12°. Lond. by R. Barker, &c. 1638

A pirated edition, executed in Holland, disfigured by numerous gross errors.

— A very small size. Edin. R. Young, 1638

Another small edition was printed at Edinburgh, by Evan Tyler, in 1642.

— Folio. With the Genevan notes.

Amst. J. Broerfs, 1642

— 4°. With marginal notes, showing Scripture to be the best interpreter of Scripture, by John Canne. Amst. 1644

A very scarce edition. The references are generally judicious. Reprinted in 8°. 1662, 1682; 12°. 1698; 4°. 1700. Several of the editions published afterwards are full of errors, and crowded with references with which Canne had no concern.

— 4°. With the Genevan notes. Lond. 1649

— 24°.

By John Field, printer to the Parliament, 1653

Called the Pearl Bible. It is disgraced by numerous errors. An imitation of it was made in Holland, 1658, but the genuine edition is known by having the first four Psalms on one page. The Bibles printed during the Commonwealth were in general so full of errors that the Committee on Religion made a regular report of it to Parliament in 1656.

Camb. by J. Field, 1657

— 24°.

Lond. by J. Field, 1658

A beautiful and correct edition.

— Folio. Illustrated with choro-graphical sculptures, by John Ogilby. Camb. J. Field, 1660

Beautifully printed. The error in Acta, 6. 3, of ye for we, which occurred in several previous editions, was here retained, and was severely animadverted upon by Bp. Whetenhall, in "Scripture Authentick."

— Sm. 8°. Lond. H. Hills, and J. Field, 1660
 Another, at Camb. J. Field, 1660, 12°.

— Thin 4°. Camb. J. Field, 1668

Several other editions were beautifully printed by Field: 8°. 1661; 4°. 1663; 4°. 1666; folio, 1666.

— with Genevan notes. Folio.

Amst. or Lond. 1672 and 1679

— Folio.

Camb. J. Hayes, 1674

— 4°. With additional parallel texts.

Camb. J. Hayes, 1677

— Folio.

Camb. J. Hayes, 1678

In this edition many additional references to parallel texts were added by Dr. Anthony Scattergood, which have been continued in succeeding editions.

— Large folio.

Lond. 1701

A very fine edition, containing additional marginal references, chronological dates, and an index, by Bp. Lloyd. It is said to abound in typographical errors.

— Folio. Dublin, printed by A. Rbames, 1714
 This appears to have been the first Bible printed in Ireland.

— 8°.

Edin. by James Watson, 1715

Well printed, and very scarce. The same printer issued another valuable small edition, 8°. Edin. 1722.

Bible. Folio. Camb. Bentham, 1762

This edition, with the exception of about six copies, was destroyed by fire.

— Folio. Camb. J. Baskerville, 1763

One of the most beautiful books ever printed. (Heath, mor. 9l.; Roxburgh, 10l. 15s.)

— Folio and 4°. Oxf. by Wright and Gill, 1769

Edited by Dr. Blayney, under the direction of the delegates of the Clarendon press, and generally denominated the standard edition, future impressions having for many years been made according to it. Dr. Blayney communicated an account of his collation and revision to the Gentleman's Mag. 39. 517. The folio edition is very scarce, a large part of the impression having been destroyed by a fire in the warehouse in London. In the 4°. edition a considerable omission occurs in Rev. 18. 22.

— 8°. Adapted to the use of schools and private families, by Richard Wynne.

La Sainte Bible en François, translâtée selon la pure et entière traduction de S. Hierome [Par
JACQUES LE FEVRE D'ESTAPLES.] Folio.

En Anvers, par M. Lempereur, 1530

This is the first French translation of the entire Bible. It was first printed in 8° in six distinct parts, between 1523 and 1528. The printing was commenced at Paris, but in 1525 it was removed to Antwerp, an arrêt of the Parliament of Paris having been issued against the translation in the latter year. Having been rigorously suppressed, copies are very scarce. Reprinted with alterations, folio, Anv. M. L'Empereur, 1534. Another edition, with woodcuts, folio, Anv. De la Haye, 1541. The same translation, revised, was published, folio, Anv. J. Loe, 1548, and with a further revision by N. de Leuse and other doctors of Louvain. It was reprinted at Louvain, 1550, in folio. This was again revised by J. de Bay, and other doctors of the same university, folio, Anv. J. Plantin, 1578. After this latter edition, the Bible known as that of the Doctors of Louvain has been often printed in various forms.

tion, revuë. 12°.

à Mons, 1696. Arnauld, Antoine, Œuvres, 6

The edition, 1697, 2 vol. 12° is much esteemed for the engravings with which it is ornamented.

This excellent translation by Arnauld, De Sacy, Nicole, and other Port-royalists, was first published at Mons [Leyde, Elzevier], 2 vol. 12°. 1667, and often reprinted. It was the occasion of a lengthened controversy, in which Arnauld took a prominent part. His various defences of it will be found in his "Œuvres," vols. 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9. See CYCL. The translator was the Abbé de Barneville. His principal object, as he states in his advertisement, was to circulate the edition gratuitously among the poor of Paris and the provinces, by the assistance of charitable contributions. The Abbé may thus be considered the founder of Bible societies. A fourth edition was published 1727, and another 1731, in which parallel passages from the Old Testament were placed in the margin.

COMMENTARIES, &c. ON THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENT.

Of Commentaries, Dr. Campbell remarks: "I am of opinion that the subject can be so easily exhausted some may suppose: I do not even think it possible for the richest imagination to preclude all scope for further remark or for the greatest acuteness to supersede all future criticism."—Pref. to the Four Gospels.

"Some of the interpreters are more especially eminent for their authority and antiquity; as—the Fathers, Ambrose, Augustine, Bernard, Chrysostom, the Cyrils, Eusebius, Gregory the Great, Gregory Nyssen, Hieronymus, Hilary, Origen, Theodoret, Theophylact, Cæcumenius.

"Amongst the later writers, some are eminent for their orthodox, sound judgment, and proper, useful matter—the Protestant commentators in general—as Alsted, Bavin, Brentius, Bucur, Bullinger, Calvin, Chemnitz, Danaeus, Drusius, Gerard, Hyperius, Junius, Lava, Luther, Peter Martyr, Melancthon, Mercer, Moller, Muculus, Pareus, Pifcator, Rivet, Rollock, Scultet, Tarr Zanchius, &c. More especially our English divines, as Ainsworth, Ames, Bayne, Byfield, Cartwright, Davenham, Hammond, Perkins, Sclater, Willet, &c. [Poole, HeWells, Patrick, Lowth, and Whitby, Scott, Kitto].

"Amongst the Popish interpreters, some are eminent for their subtlety and rational learning in the plaining of Scripture. Such were generally those scholastic men, who have undertaken to comment upon it; as Albertus Magnus, Alexander de Ales, Aquinas, Bonaventure, Cajetan, Dionysius Carthusianus, Daza, Estius, de Palatio, Dominic, Soto, &c.

"Others amongst them are eminent for solid, plain matter, in practical things, and points not controversial—Lucas Brugensis, Ferus, Janfenius [De Sacy, QueCalmet].

"Others of them are useful for their various collections and observations out of former writers—as many Jesuits and others—as a Lapide, Lorinus Maldonatus, Masius, Pererius, Pineda, Ribera, Salmeron, Sancti Serrarius, Tolet, &c." [Amongst Protestants, Mayer, tici Sacri, Poole, Dodd, Hewlett, D'Oyly and Mant Bp. WILKINS. The names within brackets are now inserted Several of the writers noticed above by Bp. Wilkins only commented on particular books of Scripture.

"Besides these commentators upon the several books there are others who have commented upon particular parcels or texts of Scripture, of which kind, the most of the ancient Fathers be the first; as those of Augustine, Bernard, Chrysostom, Chryfologus, Gregory, &c."—WILKINS. Of Sermons, Bp. Wilkins remarks: "It is a common opinion that amongst all such kinds of works our English sermons and treatises are most elaborate and useful. It was the judgment of a very learned man (Lord Bacon), that if the choice and best observations which have been made dispersedly in our English sermons (leaving out the largeness of exhortations and applications thereupon), had been set down in a continuance, it would be the best work in divinity that hath been written since the apostles' time."

Walafridus Strabus. Biblia Sacra, cum Glossa Ordinaria a Strabo Fuldensi; et Postilla Nicolai Lyrani, necnon additionibus Pauli Brugenfis, et Matthæi Doringi replicis. 6 vol. Folio. Duaci, 1617

Reprinted, 6 vol. folio, Antv. 1634.

The celebrated Glossa Ordinaria of WALAFRIDUS STRABO, or Strabus, may be considered as a Catena Patrum on the Scriptures. He copies considerably from Rabanus Maurus, on some of the books. The work is valuable for giving the literal sense, historical and moral. It was first published at Nuremberg, 1494, in 6 vol. folio, and several editions were afterwards printed. The best are those of Douay, 1617, and Antwerp, 1634, in which the Postilla of De Lyra were incorporated with other additions, "forming together," says Calmet, "a treasure for theologians and preachers."

The Postilla, or short commentaries of DE LYRA, are far superior to the age in which he flourished, and show great acquaintance with the literal sense of Scripture. They are especially valuable for the Old Testament, from his superior knowledge of Hebrew and the Rabbinical writers, particularly Jarchi. An edition was printed by Mentelin, in 1473, in 4 vol. folio, and many other editions were printed. The best are those which accompany the Glossa of Strabo. The Postilla are also to be found in the Biblia Maxima of De la Haye.

Hugo de S. Caro. Opera omnia, cum indice generali. 8 vol. Folio. Venetis, 1754

Consisting of commentaries on the Old and New Testament, which are much esteemed, particularly those on the Psalms. Several previous editions were published, Col. Acripp. 1621; Lugd. 1645, and earlier editions in 5 and 6 vols.

OLD AND NEW TEST. (continued).

Dionysius Carthusianus. Commentarius in Vetus et Novum Testamentum. 12 vol. Folio.

Coloniæ et alibi, 1532, &c.

Without much secular learning or much criticism, Dionysius the Carthusian has great discernment, knowledge, and piety, with an easy style. There were various editions of the different volumes of his commentaries printed in the sixteenth century.

Bruccioli, Ant. I libri del V. et N. Testamento, col comment. 7 parts. Folio. Venet. 1546

Cajetanus (T. de Vio, Cardinalis). Commentarii. 5 vol. Folio. Lugd. 1639

On various books of Scripture.

Sa, Emmanuel. Notationes in totam Scripturam sacram. 4°. Antv. 1598

Useful short notes, often reprinted. They were added to an edition of the Scholia of Mariana, 2 vol. folio, 1624, and they form part of the Biblia Magna of De la Haye.

Mariana, J. Scholia brevia in V. et N. Test. Folio. Madriti, 1619

Also at Paris, 1620. An edition was printed along with the annotations of Sa, by Plantin, 1624, at Antwerp, 2 vol. folio.

Menochius, J. S. Commentarii totius S. Scripturæ, ex optimis quibusque auctoribus collecti, editio novissima; huic diligenter recognitzæ accessit supplementum, quo continetur quidquid ad plenam sacræ Scripturæ intelligentiam facile parandam desiderabatur. 2 vol. Folio. Par. 1719

Short but solid explanations of Scripture. According to Dupin and Father Simon, Menochius gives in a few words more than others do in lengthened commentaries. They are inserted in the Biblia Magna and Maxima of De la Haye.

First published with the Scripture text, 3 vol. folio, Col. Agr. 1630; without the text, 2 vol. folio, 1679, 1683, and 1693. The best is that of 1719, which was much improved by Peter de Tournemine.

Tirinus, J. Commentarius in V. et N. Test. 3 vol. Folio. Antv. 1632

Reprinted without the text of Scripture in 2 vol. folio, Antv. 1645, and often afterwards. The work is inserted in the Biblia Magna and Biblia Maxima. The Prolegomena on ancient weights and measures are to be found in Walton's Polyglott.

Tirinus in his commentary has collected and abridged what he considered best in other commentators, particularly Cornelius à Lapide.

Gordon, James. Commentaria in Sacra Biblia. 3 vol. Folio. Paris, 1636

This commentary, which is much in the style of Tirinus, is not much esteemed. Only one edition has been printed.

Gagnæus, J. Scholia in Novum Testamentum. Biblia Magna

Biblia Magna commentariorum literalium, Joannis Gagnæi, Guillelmi Estii, Emmanuelis Sa, Joannis Menochii, et Jacobi Tirini. Aded crudité et intégrè S. Scripturam exponentium, ut quæ in uno, quod sensum et varias versiones possent desiderari, in alio reperiantur. Prolegomenis, chronico sacro, indicibus locupletissimis illustrata. tion. It is preferred to the Biblia Maxima of the same editor, as it is more correct, better arranged, and not so voluminous.

Biblia Maxima versionum ex linguis Orientalibus pluribus sacris MSS. codicibus innumeris ferè, et veteribus patribus et interpretibus orthodoxis collectarum, earumque concordia cum Vulgata, cum expositione literali, nec non annotationibus Nicolai De Lyra, et aliorum; additis amplissimis prolegomenis, et chronico facro: studio et opera J. DE LA HAYE. 19 vol. Folio. Parisis, 1660

This edition is not so well edited as the Biblia Magna. It does not contain the commentaries of Sa, and only gives the part of Gagnæus on the Apocalypse; but it has, in addition, the Postilla of De Lyra, the notes of De la Haye himself, and the various readings of the Oriental and of some of the Latin versions of Scripture.

Biblia Sacra, cum duplici translatione, et scholiis FRANCISCI VATABLI; nunc denuò à plurimis, quibus scatebant, erroribus repurgatis, doctissimorum theologorum, tam almæ universitatis Salmanticensis, quam Complutensis judicio; ac sanctæ et generalis Inquisitionis jussu. 2 vol. Folio. Salmant. 1584

The annotations of Francis Vatablus were written from his lectures, as professor in the University of Paris, by one of his scholars (Bertin le Comte), and published by Robert Stephens in his edition of the Latin Bible, 1545, and again in 1557. Stephens was accused of mixing Protestant sentiments with them; and the doctors of Salamanca, in their celebrated and rare edition, 1584, professed to have again rendered them proper for Roman Catholics. The work has been often reprinted. The annotations of Vatablus are inserted in the CRITICI SACRI.

Clario, Bp. Annotationes in Vetus et Novum Testamentum. Critici Sacri

The annotations of Clarius were printed in folio at Venice 1542, and again 1557. Some parts of them having been placed in the Index, an expurgated edition was published in 1564. He has left nothing on the Apocalypse. His notes on the Old Testament are, in a great measure, taken from Sebastian Munster.

Lucas Brugensis, F. Notationes in Sacra Biblia, quibus variantia discrepantibus loca exemplaribus summo studio discutuntur. 4°.

Antv. 1580

Judicious and well-considered notes. They are inserted in the Critici Sacri.

Biblia Latina Theologorum Lovaniensium.

Antv. Plantin.

1580. Reprinted, 1582-83-84-87, and 1590

This Bible is accompanied with various readings and good notes by Lucas Brugensis, Molanus, and others. They are to be found in the Critici Sacri, and they have been much commended by Mill, Simon, John Fabricius, and other critics.

Du Hamel, J. B. Biblia Sacra, Vulgatæ editionis, una cum selectis annotationibus, prolegomenis, &c. 2 vol. Folio. Parisis, 1706

Beautifully printed, but incorrect. The chronological tables by Tournemine are well executed.

Eftius, Guil. Annotationes in præcipua difficiliora S. Scripturæ loca. Folio. Duaci, 1628

First published, 4°, 1621. The above edition was enlarged from the author's notes. Reprinted, 1652, 1663, and 1683. They are inserted in the Biblia Magna and Maxima; but they are inferior to the author's exposition of the Epistles.

Lapide, Cornelius à. Commentaria in Vetus et Novum Testamentum [exceptis libris Job et Psalmorum]. 12 vol. Folio. v. y.

The Commentaries of Cornelius à Lapide are held in great esteem by learned men, especially the commentaries on the Pentateuch and on the Epistles of St. Paul, which have been considered the chef d'œuvres of erudition.

Par. 1692

This admirable commentary is especially valuable for unfolding the spiritual sense of Scripture. The above is the first and best edition; the reprints are very numerous, both in a complete state and abridged. The translation has been very frequently printed separately, and has been much approved.

Calmet, A. Commentaire littéral sur tous les livres de l'Ancien et du Nouveau Testament. 8 vol. in 9. Folio. Par. 1724

One of the best commentaries which have ever been written; it displays immense learning, good sense, sound judgment, and deep piety. It contains the Latin Vulgate and a French version in parallel columns, with a commentary, literal, historical, and critical, on the historical books, and literal and moral on the others; the prefaces, dissertations, and other illustrations, are full of interesting information. There is an edition in 26 vol. 4°, and the dissertations have been published separately.

Bible de Vence. Sainte Bible, en Latin et en François, avec des notes littérales, critiques et historiques, des préfaces et dissertations, tirées du commentaire de Dom Augustin Calmet, de M. l'Abbé de Vence, et des auteurs les plus célèbres; pour faciliter l'intelligence de l'Écriture Sainte. Ouvrage enrichi de cartes géographiques et de figures. Seconde édition revue, corrigée et augmentée de diverses notes et dissertations nouvelles. 17 vol. 4°.

Par. 1767-73

A fifth edition was published in 27 vol. 8°. at Paris, 1827-34, revised and augmented, with numerous notes by M. Drach, a converted Jewish rabbi.

Commentaries by Protestants.

Pellican, Conrad. Commentaria Bibliorum. 10 vol. Folio. Tiguri, 1532-42

Pellican gives the Latin Vulgate retouched, and rendered more conformable to the Hebrew and Greek; his commentaries are excellent for elucidating the literal and grammatical sense of Scripture, and for throwing light on many obscure passages. He did not write on Jonah, Zechariah, or the Apocalypse. The commentary on the Apocalypse, by S. Meyer, in which Pellican assisted, is often added. The work thus complete (in 10 vol. folio) is very scarce.

Calvin, John. Commentarii in V. libros Moses, Jos. 1 Sam. Job, Pf. Is. Jer. Lament. Ezech. Dan. Proph. minores, Evang. Acta, Epistolas Pauli et Canonicas. Opera — Commentaries, translated. 52 vol. 8°. Edin. 1845-56

This includes a translation of all the above, with the exception of 1 Sam. and Job.

Testamentum Vetus, Lat. cum scholiis Tremellii et Junii, libri Apocryphi, Lat. cum notis Junii, et Novum Testamentum ex sermone Syro ab Tremellio, et ex Græco à Theodoro Beza in Lat. cum notis itidem. Folio. Lond. 1593

First printed at Geneva, 1575-79; afterwards revised by Junius, and often reprinted.

The Bible and Holy Scriptures. Translated, with most profitable annotations. Folio. Gen. 1561-62

These annotations have had numerous editions, along with the Geneva version, and they were added to several editions of the translation now in use.

The Holy Bible, according to the authorized version, with short notes by several learned and pious reformers, with additional notes and dissertations [by the Rev. Thomas Webster, A.D.]. 4°. Lond. 1810

In this edition the notes on the Old Testament are from the Geneva Bible, and those on the New are translated from Beza.

Catalio's annotations are inserted in the Critici Sacri.

Ofiander, Lucas. Annotationes in utrumque Testamentum. 8 vol. 4°. Tub. 1573-84

It has been said of Lucas Ofiander, that he had discovered the secret of being brief with fertility, and fertile with brevity.

Piscator, John. Commentarii in omnes libros Veteris et Novi Testamenti, quibus continentur: 1. Analysis logica singulorum librorum et capitum; 2. Scholia in singula capita; 3. Observationes locorum doctrinæ à singulis capitibus. 5 vol. in 3. Herb. 1646

An excellent analytical commentary, commended by Father Simon as exact and erudite.

Trapp, John. A commentary, or exposition upon the books of the Old and New Testament. 5 vol. Folio. Lond. 1654, &c.

A very curious work; illustrating Scripture by numerous anecdotes. It contains many useful remarks, with much quaint wit. Very rare.

A critical commentary and paraphrase on the Old and New Testament and the Apocrypha, by Patrick, Lowth, Arnald, Whitby, and Lowman. Corrected by the Rev. J. R. Pitman. 6 vol. Royal 4°. Lond. 1822

A work of standard authority. An edition in a smaller type has been published in 4 vol. imperial 8°. Lond. 1853, and other dates, with the Sacred text printed at large, which was not given in former editions. The various editions in 6 vol. folio, are esteemed for the large type in which they are printed; none of them contain Lowman, and only a few are found with Arnald, making in all 7 vol. folio.

Lond. 1849

This continues to be the most generally interesting of all the English commentaries. Though not apparent, it gives the result of accurate critical knowledge of the original text, and the writings of the best critics up to the time of the author. There have been numerous editions, 5 vol. folio; 6 vol. folio; 6 vol. 4°; 3 vol. imp. 8°; 6 vol. medium 8°; 3 vol. 4°.

Eusebius Pamphilus. Commentarii in Psalms, Gr. et Lat. Montfaucon, Collectio Nova, 1

In this commentary the object of Eusebius is—1. to give critical notes on the order of the Psalms; 2. to explain the literal and mystical meaning of them; and, 3. to combat atheists and infidels: all which he has well executed.

COMMENTARIES, &c. ON THE BOOK OF ECCLESIASTES.

Pineda, in the preface to his Commentary, treats the author of this book, of its subject and order, and manner of explaining it. Calmet, in his preface that Solomon was the author. Noel Alexander's sixth dissertation on the fifth age of the world, shews the heathen have drawn from it.

Not much esteemed.

Lowth, Bp. Isaiah. A new translation, with a preliminary dissertation, notes, critical, philological, and explanatory. Thirteenth edition. 8°.

Lond. 1842

First published, 4°. 1778.

A work of the highest reputation. The translation is sublime, and the notes invaluable. Bp. Lowth's system has been carried out successfully on other parts of Scripture by Bp. Jebb and others.

[Dodson, M.] A new translation of Isaiah, with notes by a layman [M. Dodson]. 8°.

Lond. 1790

In this work Bp. Lowth's version was attacked. The author was a Unitarian. It was answered by Dr. John Sturges, in a pamphlet, 1790, to which Dodson replied, 1791.

Doederlein, J. C. Esaias, ex recensione textus Hebræi Latine cum notis. Editio tertia recognita. 8°.

Norib. 1789

First edition, 8°. Altdorf, 1780.

The work shows profound and elegant learning, and great power of judgment and genius.

Macculloch, R., D.D. Lectures on the prophecies of Isaiah. 4 vol. 8°.

Lond. 1791-1805

A scarce book containing an epitome of Vitringa's great work on Isaiah.

Frazer, A. Commentary on Isaiah, being a paraphrase, with notes, showing the literal meaning of the prophecy. 8°. Edin. 1800

This work, according to Orme, "discovers much sound sense and a Scriptural knowledge, and a talent for critical exposition."

Stock, Bp. Isaiah, in Hebrew and English, the Hebrew text metrically arranged, the translation altered from that of Bp. Lowth. 4°.

Brightman, Thomas. A most comfortable exposition of the last and most difficult part of the prophecy of Daniel, from the 26 verse of the ii. chapter to the end of the xii. chapter, wherein the restoring of the Jews, and their calling to the faith of Christ after the utter overthrow of their three last enemies, is set forth in lively colours. 4°. Lond. 1644

Parker, Thomas. The visions and prophecies of Daniel expounded; wherein the mistakes of former interpreters are modestly discovered, and the true meaning of the text made plain by the words and circumstances of it. The same also illustrated by clear instances taken out of histories which relate the events of time mystically foretold by the holy prophet. Amongst other things of note, touching the two witnesses, the New Jerusalem, the Thousand Years, &c., here is propounded a new way for the finding out of the determinate time signified by Daniel in his seventy weeks; when it did begin, and when we are to expect the end thereof. 4°. Lond. 1646

MINOR PROPHETS (continued).

- Montanus, B. Arius. Comment. in xii. prophetas minores. 4°. Ant. 1583
- Danzæus, L. Comment. in xii. prophetas minores. 8°. Gen. 1586; 8°. 1594
- A fruitful commentarie upon the twelve small prophets, briefe, plaine, and easie, going over the same verse by verse, and shewing everywhere the method, points of doctrine, and figures of rhetoricke, with very necessarie fore-notes for the understanding both of these, and also all other the prophets. The text of the prophets, together with that of the quotations omitted by the author, faithfully supplied by the translator, and marginal notes very plentiful and profitable, so that it may in manner be counted a new booke. Written in Latine and translated by John Stockwood, minister at Tunbridge. 4°. London. 1594
- An esteemed work of very rare occurrence.
- Livelie, Edw. Annotations in Oseam, Jochem, Amosum, Abdiam, Jonam. 8°. London. 1587; Crit. Sac. 4
- Much esteemed.
